

GRADE – II LISTED ENGLISH ELEGANCE COMBINED WITH MODERN DESIGNS IN AN IMPECCABLE LOCATION

The Great Marlborough Street Magistrate's Court set the scene for many famous cases over the years, which were either heard there or taken to full trial at Crown Courts such as the Old Bailey. Famous cases included the appearance of John Lennon, Oscar Wilde, Christine Keeler and Mick Jagger who were all present to defend their cause.

Many remnants of this time have been incorporated into the building's current scheme. The Bar's private tables are actually inside three of the original prison cells and the original courtroom, today known as the Silk restaurant, is the culinary and architectural focal point of the hotel.
