

COURT IN THE ACT

Order, order at Silk

There's nothing like a innovative backdrop to turn your dinner into a memorable occasion. And as far as we're concerned, it's hard to beat the experience of dining at Silk at the Courthouse Kempinski. Set in the infamous Number One courtroom where Oscar Wilde pleaded his case, this opulent oak-panelled room features the original witness stand and jury's and judge's benches, making an impressive setting for the intricate dishes using ingredients sourced from the Silk Route. Great for special occasions (p. 44).